In the pretty village of Bishopswood, set in the heart of the Blackdown Hills, this is dairy country with lots of good local produce.

Debbie, Tom and Rodney the Chef have taken over this beautiful country pub and refurbished it gently after its year closed.

Flint walls, wooden floors and open fires

Gravity pulled beer, local ciders or a nice glass of wine

Locals at the bar and a warm and friendly atmosphere

A blooming garden for barbeques and sunshine

Function room available for large parties, wedding receptions and conferences

Menu changes daily, all cooked here using the best quality ingredients

Open 7 days a week for food lunchtime and evening
